The music department of the Women's Federation of Clubs met this morning at the home of Mrs. Frank Wheeler on Clay street. Mrs. Albert Parks Bennett had charge of the program of Christmas music. The women's chorus of the federation had their first rehearsal this morning.

Miss Gladys Gaw deserves a great deal of credit for the interesting program of "chamber music" which was given last evening at Unity church. The Dalton Music club, of which Miss Gaw is president, has been playing in the old time, when the string instruments, Milton once said that the "music in heaven would be strung instruments and the harp would all be in tune" and those who heard the concert last night were convinced of the fact.

Miss Gaw was a becoming gown of yellow silk combined with gold and white fur. She was assisted by Miss Alice Hurd, of Kansas City, Mrs. Phoebe Gaylord, of Lawrence, Miss Ethel Grant, who resided here last year, and Miss Helen Spielman, who is visiting from Michigan. Miss Phoebe Gaylord, Mrs. P. D. Darcy and a number of Miss Gaw's pupils.

House, of the East side, whom Miss Gaw is assisting, sang "The Christmas Song" and "The Christmas Carol".

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Peterson announce the engagement of their daughter, Edith, to Mr. Chester Clyde Chalmers. The wedding will take place Thursday, December 30.

"Congratulations! Oh, it is too late!" is an American expression which we have used so much that we have almost grown to regard it as the proper thing to say. If we do not meet the bridegroom for a few weeks after he has become a "Benedict," we greet him with, "Congratulations! Oh, it is too late!" and think of him as being complimentary. We do not realize how ridiculous the expression really is. Such is the case with many of our American phrases.

Mrs. C. R. Reed and Mrs. Kale Root will entertain a few friends at a bridge-luncheon today at the home of Mrs. Reed, 1143 Fillmore street.

Social and Personal Mention.
